

Progress '12

Hands To Serve

See how Gateway area residents are upgrading wellness in this year's Hands to Serve Progress edition. Take a tour of Clinton High School's new athletic facilities, meet the stroke robot at Mercy Medical Center, get a glimpse of Medical Associates' many offerings and find out more about Sarah Harding's new administrator. These stories and more are featured in this week's Progress edition.

A Supplement to the
CLINTON HERALD

News About You!

September 22nd, 2012